DOWNSIZING FOR SENIOR

Are you or one of your family members downsizing to a smaller home? Are you dreading the whole moving process? Imagine having a downsizing expert guiding you through this move to make it stress-free, easy, and smooth.

Downsizing is a big change in our lives and we understand that it can be quite a stressful and emotional process. We can assist you from the moment you decide to make a move, right to the first night in your new home... and everything in between.

We believe in treating our client with respect and compassion, as if they are our family. Whether you are moving from a big house to an apartment or into a retirement/lifestyle home, it's nice to know someone is there to support you throughout the experience. Our vast expertise will save you precious time and money, while also safeguarding you from the stresses and hassles of relocation.

We will support you every step of the way by:

- Providing you with a personalized plan tailored to your needs
- Guiding you in the sorting and decluttering process
- Making suggestions to improve the property's curb appeal and to prioritize the minor repairs that will increase the home value
- Packing, moving, unpacking

A professionally staged home by Abode Staging can usually be sold quickly and for a higher price.
